

A little garlic, 2 cloves smashed, one clove minced, hot pepper flakes, fresh ground black pepper, a touch of salt and about 4 tbs extra virgin olive oil. Let'em sit and meet while you prepare the rest

Give 2 cups of frozen peas a little ride in the microwave, just heat them thru, and set aside

Roughly chop a handful of sundried tomatoes, a handful of olives, maybe a bit of pepperoni if you happen to have it on hand, I didn't. Don't forget to grate a little parmigiano

Throw the pasta, salted water, of course, have a glass of chianti, and wait about 8 minutes...Don't let it get mushy, stupido! Drain the pasta, toss with the rest of your ingredients, top with your parmigiano, maybe an extra shake of red pepper flakes, maybe a piece of garlic bread...Enjoy
